

Independence Day Celebration — Notes from organizers—

Robinson Lions Club:

As the 4th of July rapidly approaches, the Robinson Lions Club is preparing for its annual Ice Cream and Cake Social and Fireworks display. The Club is very appreciative of the wonderful response previously from the community in helping with the event by volunteering help setting up tables, helping with the serving and cleanup, and bringing cakes. If you can help again this year, it would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Judi Bruning at 544-7739 or 741-2282 if you can make a cake or help in any way. We want this to be another memorable 4th of July celebration.

Robinson Volunteer Fire Department:

Start your July 4th festivities off on the right foot in Robinson, with our famous pancakes, locally produced sausage, biscuits and gravy, pancakes and more! Serving 7 a.m.-11 a.m. at the Veterans Memorial Building.
