

Notes from the City of Robinson:

Apologies to residents for lack of notice for loss of water or water pressure on September 13. The emergency replacement of a valve was needed and conditions did not allow time for notification.

To better serve the citizens of Robinson the Robinson City clerk is making an email group for notifying citizens of “emergency” type situations (such as the recent boiling order). Those who wish to be included in this mailing list are asked to please contact city hall with their email address.

Editors’ note: Because of the number of people who are employed outside of Robinson and not home for contact opportunities, this list seems like a good option to increase communications. It is hopeful that Robinson citizens will continue to share critical information with others when they know that there is a problem.

A very neatly done “CITY HALL” designation can now be seen on the window of the city hall office. In the past some visitors to Robinson have had challenges in finding city hall. Thanks to Paula and council members this problem should be resolved for any future visitors.

A special “Thank You” is extended to the volunteers who hosted the open house at the Robinson Bank. Robinson residents stopped by to step back into the past of Robinson while enjoying refreshments. Those guests who had traveled the farthest were from Littleton, Colorado. The guests showed appreciation for the exquisite cabinetry, ornate teller cages, vaulted tin ceiling, and the bank vault and safe. Seeing a “real bank” was a unique experience for most of them.

Thank you to the local gardeners who are sharing their harvest at Robinson’s Community Store. Shoppers are enjoying the opportunities for fresh produce at the store!

Students participating in the HHS “Give Back to Your Community” event were in Robinson September 27. Their project in Robinson was to paint parking stripes on the street in the downtown area. Locally, Dennis Tietjens volunteered to coordinate the activity. Dennis was assisted by council members Angie Muckey and Mark Lieneman.

The latest barn quilt creation has been completed! It can be seen at First Sunday Dinner, Oct. 1, in the City Hall Community Room.

Children share praise at Bellevue Homecoming

The Bellevue United Methodist Church homecoming was well attended Sunday, September 24. This year's guest speaker was Andrea Collins-Keller. Andrea presented an encouraging and uplifting message "Maintaining Joy Amidst The Chaos & Concerns." Dorothy's time with the children was followed by a message song "God Is For Me" performed by the children. Jana Collins presented special music as she sang "Hills and Valleys." Members of the Trinity Fellowship and homecoming guests joined together for a potluck luncheon after the worship service.

Robinson Community Building Association has been granted 501(c)3 status by the IRS. The organization has always been non-profit, but the new status permits donations made to RCBA to be tax deductible.

The new designation has been achieved after much dedicated effort in submitting detailed paper work to the IRS. RCBA continues its purpose to build community in Robinson with activities that include operating the store, publishing and distributing The Robinson Voice, and providing "First-Sunday Dinner" nourishment and fellowship. The efforts of all the volunteers who make these activities possible and those who have worked to attain the 501(c)3 status is appreciated.

Thank you to all who helped with Della's fundraiser on Saturday, September 15 and to all who attended and made donations to help with medical bills. Those attending had an opportunity to enjoy dinner and to be entertained by recording artist Matt Snook during the evening. The benefit was deemed a success.
