

RCBA Board Holds Election—During the December 2nd First Sunday Dinner, RCBA members were invited to cast their ballots, deciding who should fill two open spots on the association’s board. Gary Ramey and Sarah Wissler were elected to serve the terms, which will run through 2021.

Anyone wishing to become more involved in the RCBA is urged to join the association, fill out volunteer paperwork, or visit a meeting. A note from Lora Brobst:

“It’s Not Supposed to Be This Way” Women’s Bible Study begins with an introductory session on January 2 followed by 6 weekly teaching videos by Lysa TerKeurst, Jan. 9 – Feb. 13.

Women of all ages from our community and surrounding areas are invited to come grow through the study of God’s Word and friendly fellowship! You can come to any of the sessions that are held in downtown Hiawatha at the Eternal Hope Family Life Center, 424 Oregon St., weekly on Wednesdays at: 10-11:15 a.m., 2-3:15 p.m. and 6-7:15 p.m. Optional resources: $10 for chapter books and $7.50 for study guides, available at all sessions.

It doesn’t matter if you’ve never been to church, or if you belong to a different church family. What DOES matter is that women of all ages, from every walk of life, can be shoulder-to-shoulder as we find help in God’s truth! For more information, please contact Lora Brobst at 785-288-0445 or brobst@rainbowtel.net or on Facebook: Women’s Bible Study Hiawatha, Kansas.
